

Proclamation
In Appreciation of Outstanding Public Service
by Police Chief Jake Adler

Whereas, Chief Adler has provided outstanding public service and contributions while starting out as a patrol officer in 2004, moving up to Sergeant, and serving as Police Chief over the past two years; and

Whereas, Chief Adler's dedication and commitment to the Town earned him recognition as a 2011 Nederland Community Champion recipient, Boulder County Sheriff's Office Certificate of Commendation for Strategic Planning and Steering, and the International Association of Police Chief's IACP award for Leadership in Police Organization; and

Whereas, Chief Adler over the years had single-handedly captured an in-progress attempted murder, participated in a major life-saving event in conjunction with the Nederland Fire Department, and entered a burning house to heroically rescue a beloved family pet; and

Whereas, Chief Adler's diligent service to Nederland has resulted in increased stability within the Nederland Police Department and continued partnership with the Boulder County Sheriff's Office.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, JOE GIERLACH, MAYOR OF THE TOWN OF NEDERLAND, do hereby proclaim thanks and gratitude to Police Chief Jake Adler for his demonstrated compassion and concern for all members of the community over the past 10 years.

I FURTHER call upon the residents of the Town of Nederland to join me in this declaration of appreciation and thanks for the outstanding public service provided.
